

NWTC's Nursing Associate Degree and Practical Degree is designed to meet the State of Wisconsin's licensing criteria. However, NWTC has not made a determination whether this program meets licensure/certification requirements in states other than Wisconsin. Students who may be seeking professional licensure or certification in states other than Wisconsin should contact the appropriate licensing board in that state to verify that the NWTC program meets licensure or certification requirements.