

Students enrolled in NWT CDMS program should be able to meet the established technical standards identified below with or without reasonable accommodations. The technical standards for the CDMS program are representative of those found in the CDMS profession.

| Area | Functions (not inclusive) with or without reasonable accommodations |
|--------------------------|--|
| Physical Skills | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> x Bend, stretch, twist, reach with your body above shoulders, below waist, and in front x Transfer and position patients applying principles of safe body mechanic x Provide direct patient x Manipulate, assemble, and move equipment x Document patient condition <ul style="list-style-type: none"> x Visual acuity (ability to see fine lines), color distinctions and gradual changes in blacks and grays x Ability to conceptualize images in 2 |
| | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Detect environmental hazards x Detect warning signals on equipment displays x Detect subtle changes or differences (e.g. pulse, rash, temperature) |
| Communication Skills | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> { Speak, read, and write English { Listen and comprehend spoken and written English { Collaborate with others { Respond to others in an accepting and respectful manner |
| Critical Thinking Skills | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> { Apply knowledge and skills learned in the classroom to a clinical setting { Identify cause-effect relationships { Comprehend and follow instructions |

StudentSignature

Date

Student- Print Name

Student ID

Parentor GuardianSignature (if student under 18 years of age)

Date